Dear Colleague,

With reference to your letter of 15 May last and the enclosures thereto.

I have noted the contents of the statements that you have sent me. I have meanwhile passed on the attachments to your fax message to clients and instructing English lawyers with the purpose to verify the contents of that documentation.

As second item on your list of enclosures you mention the confirmation of the registration of the vessel in the Mexican ship registry dated 27 October 2005. As far as I can ascertain the name of the vessel is handwritten on the document, the document itself does not contain, again as far as I can ascertain, the name of the alleged new owners of the vessel.

In view of the urgency which appears from your fax message of 15 May I would like to bring to your attention that my clients arrested the vessel on 10 November 2005 and since then my clients had no communication or reply from their debtors, nor from the alleged new owners that you now represent. Furthermore the vessel at the time of the arrest had already been in Delfzijl for many months, if not years. The suggestion of urgency therefore seems somewhat misplaced.

I look forward to receive a confirmation from the yard that the vessel is indeed ready to sail and also allowed by the shipyard to sail.

I understand that you have original documentation regarding the change of ownership in your office. In that respect could you please send me a copy of the MoA in respect of the sale/purchase of the vessel?

Looking forward to that further information,

Yours sincerely,

Dear colleague

Re: 'Caballo Azteca'

Thank you for your fax of earlier today.

The documents which I have sent to you by fax yesterday I believe are sufficient for you to be able to establish that indeed my client received the ownership of the vessel before the date of the arrest and that such ownership was registered with the Ship's Register in Mexico. Subsequently, I believe you have all the information you need to lift the arrest immediately.

Hence, my fax of 15 May 2006 is hereby fully maintained. Although I believe clients are under no obligation to provide you with the MoA, I have forwarded your request to submit a copy. Nevertheless, this does not change the fact that the arrest was made on a vessel which belongs to client, and who have no connection with your clients' claim against Oceanografia.

Please confirm that the arrest will be lifted.

Kind regards

Michael Hajdasinski

Dear Colleague,

I was unable to contact you or your office by phone some minutes ago.

This is to confirm that clients have instructed me to lift the arrest on the CABALLO AZTECA.

I am now making the necessary arrangements through the bailiff.

Yours sincerely,
Jan van der Stelt
